

Architecture

Chartered Member of RIBA

Register as architect with the Architects
Registration Board (ARB)

RIBA Part 3: Final qualifying examination, Career, case study, written and oral

2 years of which 12 months in the EEA

Stage 2 practical experience Under supervision of an architect

2 years full time

RIBA Part 2: University degree (varies per university) BArch, MArch, etc...

Possibility for specialist study, possibly abroad

Minimum 1 year

Stage 1 practical experience

Some students work for more than one year

3 years

RIBA Part 1 University degree in Architecture

+ Exchange abroad, depending on degree

A levels/International Baccaluareate
High grades needed - Important subjects:
Mathematics, physics, art, humanities

Level 3 BTEC in related subject (some universities will only allow A levels and IB!)

GCSEs

High grades in mathematics and physics especially

